

Top Ten Tax-Friendly Cities

Whether you are a recruiter, a candidate, or a client cost of living can be a top concern when dealing with a relocation. However, it is not always what you earn, but what you keep that affects your standard of living. Take a look at the top ten tax friendly cities to see who stacks up the best.

ONE

Anchorage, AK
Income tax: $0
Property tax: $2,572
Sales tax: $0
Auto tax: $165

TWO

Manchester, NH
Income tax: $0
Property tax: $2,349
Sales tax: $0
Auto tax: $493

THREE

Cheyenne, WY
Income tax: $0
Property tax: $1,326
Sales tax: $1,512
Auto tax: $665

FOUR

Seattle, WA
Income tax: $0
Property tax: $1,698
Sales tax: $1,561
Auto tax: $457

FIVE

Las Vegas, NV
Income tax: $0
Property tax: $2,251
Sales tax: $1,072
Auto tax: $486

SIX

Jacksonville, FL
Income tax: $0
Property tax: $2,456
Sales tax: $1,284
Auto tax: $195

SEVEN

Sioux Falls, SD
Income tax: $0
Property tax: $2,760
Sales tax: $1,518
Auto tax: $294

EIGHT

Phoenix, AZ
Income tax: $1,241
Property tax: $1,401
Sales tax: $1,849
Auto tax: $588

NINE

Billings, MT
Income tax: $2,559
Property tax: $1,865
Sales tax: $0
Auto tax: $689

TEN

Chicago, IL
Income tax: $2,019
Property tax: $1,023
Sales tax: $1,624
Auto tax: $478

If you are looking for a easy way to find out what the tax burden is in a particular state contact Mickey Matteson at Recruiter Relocation to find out where you can get this information quickly and just how to it can help you close a deal!

Source – Kiplinger.com
